UNION HIGH SCHOOL HONORS MEMORY OF WASHINGTON BY FITTING PROGRAM

DOUBLE ASSEMBLY

AUDITORIUM NOT NEAR LARGE ENOUGH TO ACCOMMODATE STUDENTS ATTENDING

Washington's birthday was fittingly observed this morning at the Glendale Union High school by a program of patriotic music and characterizations of the periods in the life of the first president of the United States of America.

The celebration of patriotic holidays by the schools is mandatory, according to Principal George U. Moyses, as well as desirable on the part of the educators. However, the state school law provides that they shall not be holidays, so the schools keep in session.

In a letter received from the Los Angeles county superintendent of schools, Mark Keppel, the latter earnestly requested that a fitting program be carried out which would feature the patriotism of those who consecrated their lives to their country in order that the spirit of Americanism be implanted in the minds of the youth. This, he believes, will do much to offset the present tendency toward radicalism.

Double Assembly Held

In order that the program be carried out in compliance with the state and county requests, Principal Moyses had to arrange for a double assembly this morning, as the seating capacity of the auditorium is limited to 550 and there are now 1025 students enrolled.

With the faculty and visitors adding more than three score to the attendance of 1025, both assemblies crowded the auditorium to hear the life of Washington extolled in song and story.

Commenting on the division of the students for such events as this, Mr. Moyses said that the assembly no longer had the vital unifying element of school life, but that similar make-shifts will have to continue until such a time that needed accommodation.

Jenabe Fazel Mazandarani, said to be the greatest Persian philosopher, will deliver an address at the Glendale Union High school tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. His audience will be limited to the upper classmen and others to the extent of the seating capacity of the auditorium.

"Old and New Persia" will be the topic of the philosopher's address and he will speak in his native tongue. Mirza Ahmed Sorab, who has spoken to Glendale audiences before, accompanies him as interpreter.

The address here will be one of the few to be delivered by Mazandarani during his brief visit in southern California and it is made possible through Mrs. W. M. Cline, 322 East Cypress street, who is a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Sorab. The latter is an Oakland society woman and her marriage to the Persian envoy to San Francisco was an event of last summer.

GREET VISITORS

MRS. O. R. BARNETT HOSTESS YESTERDAY AFTERNOON TO NUMBER OF NEIGHBORS

Mrs. O. R. Barnett, 334 West Broadway, yesterday afternoon entertained about twenty-five neighbors in honor of Mrs. William Ingram of Oakland, who is the house guest of her son, W. D. Ingram, and Mrs. Frank Evans of Uleia, New York, who is a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jacob Schremp.

The Barnett home was beautifully decorated in spring blossoms, the living rooms being fragrant with baskets and sprays of gorgeous yellow acacia, while the remainder of the home was ornamented with bluish pink Cherokee roses, pink carnations and asparagus ferns.

The guests passed the hours about a grate fire, cheerful with blazing logs and during the afternoon listened with much pleasure to several well-known readings by Mrs. J. A. McKelvey.

A most effective centerpiece of oranges and marigolds ornamented the dining table and under the rays of the beaded gold electrolier made a most effective picture.

Late in the afternoon delicious refreshments, carrying out the color scheme of pink and gold were served, a daintily appointed table being set aside for the several little folks who had accompanied their mothers to the afternoon's pleasure.

The guests bidden to greet Mrs. Ingram and Mrs. Evans included: Mrs. Emma Wood, Mrs. J. H. Sherman, Mrs. Jacob Schremp, Mrs. Katherine Jones, Mrs. J. A. MacKelvey, Mrs. T. Caldwell, Mrs. W. Stevenson, Mrs. Lloyd Bradley, Mrs. G. Peters, Mrs. Elmer Peterson, Mrs. Andrew Neilson, Mrs. Eugene Wilson, Mrs. J. S. Thompson, Mrs. E. M. Hitchcock, Miss Virginia Archer, Miss Jean Ingram, Mrs. A. Mrs. Eva Bernayo Is Injured Tobogganing In Little Bear Valley

While tobogganing in Little Bear Valley in the San Bernardino mountains Sunday, Mrs. Eva Bernayo, wife of Phil S. Bernayo, residing at Canada boulevard and Camulos avenue in Verdugo canyon, suffered painful injuries when thrown from the sled.

One of Mrs. Bernayo's legs was broken and she was badly bruised as the sled was speeding swiftly over the snowy white so uncommon to southern California. It is said that it was in an endeavor to stop the sled that the accident occurred.

The injured woman was brought to her home here for surgical aid and it is reported that she is resting as comfortably as could be expected. Her friends in the canyon have extended her sympathy and hope for her early recovery.

It is believed that this is the first instance of a toboggan mishap in southern California occurring to a resident of Glendale. Mrs. Bernayo, it is understood, was one of a party of friends who trekked to the "rim of the world" for a week-end outing which was so marred by the most pleasurable of winter sports in the north and east.

Fire? Sure! Where? Reporter Finds One Close To Fire Chief

"Any fires today?" was the query at Station No. 1 on Broadway this morning.

"Sure, the chief has one. He's back in the machine shop."

And back to the machine shop went the reporter expecting someone's garage was in ruins.

Not so, however. Chief Lankford had a "fire" in the forge and was busily welding a blacksmith's hammer on a red-hot horse-shoe.

Looking around for the mule—for it looked like that kind of a shoe—there was no mule.

It was soon evident that there was to be a game of quots and therefore the improvements on the horseshoe. "You can tell that Horseshoe club we're going to challenge them when we have practiced enough," commented one of the firemen.

"And you can add that due to the fact that the Washington birthday races have been postponed at the Beverly Speedway, the fire station will be open all day," said another jokingly.

Searching for Talent

William A. Pfeiffer, who conducts a bicycle shop at 141 South Brand, is looking for talent. Actors need not apply.

What he wants is a Glendale entrant in the bike races which are staged at the Stadium, Washington and Figueroa streets, every Sunday afternoon.

He has given several local youngsters a work-out and says if he can't find anyone that can keep pace with himself, he may have to enter to have Glendale represented.

Here's a chance to show your speed, boys.

Orchestra Is Popular

Practically it's impossible to "stop a show" at a photoplay theatre unless the lights should go out. But literally it happened last night at the Palace Grand here. Robert Jensen has been reorganizing the orchestra and it is rapidly becoming popular with its jazzy music and special overtures. "Macjume Sherry" was heartily applauded, but when the musicians concluded "Oolong," the audience insisted on more of the same kind of music.

SHAKESPEARE IS SECTION'S TOPIC

MRS. COLIN CABLE IS HOSTESS ON MONDAY AFTERNOON TO MEMBERS OF CLUB

PROGRAM PLEASING

DIFFERENT NUMBERS HIGHLY PRAISED; MRS. MONTGOMERY TO ENTERTAIN NEXT

Guest day, with the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club as hostess, was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Colin Cable of 505 South Columbus avenue. The drear and inclement weather on the outside only served to add glamour to the brightness within, as the rooms were cosy with the warmth of the open grate fire and the loveliness of the peach blossom decorations.

Curator Mrs. O. E. Von Oven graciously welcomed the guests and invited them to join the section. The program was opened with a record on the Victrola, "The Wren," by Gal-Hi Currel.

Mrs. A. J. Lyons, instructor of the section, was unable to be present. Mrs. Von Oven read a paper on "The Sidelights of Shakespeare," which had been written by Mrs. Lyons.

Various Events Please

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, in splendid voice, read a farce by Lord Dunsany, titled, "If Shakespeare Lived Today."

Mrs. Harry Greenwalt told most pleasingly of the educational and moral teachings of the play of Macbeth.

Mrs. C. A. Parker charmed the assemblage with her rendition of three songs, "It Was a Lover and His Lass," "Silvia," "Good Morning, Brother Sunshine," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Wright.

The sleep walking scene from Macbeth was given by Mrs. H. W. Ralston, as Lady Macbeth; Mrs. Colin Cable, as the nurse; Mrs. Edna Sawyer Canfield, as the doctor. It was splendidly acted, particularly the work of Mrs. Ralston, which was applauded to the echo. This ended the first part of the program which was food to the mentality and opened the second part, with Mrs. Colin Cable as hostess, whose culinary ability, so well known, added to the occasion by the delicious refreshments served.

Assistants and Invited Guests

Assisting Mrs. Cable were Mrs. O. E. Von Oven, Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. Roscoe Puffer and Mrs. E. W. Kingseley.

Among the invited guests were Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club; Mrs. Cora Ramsey, former president; Miss Eva Daniels, Mrs. Alfred Cookman, Mrs. Wm. Smith, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. T. B. Ashton and Mrs. W. Cummings.

One of many feminine boosters for "California's Greatest Mid-winter Event" which opened in San Bernardino February 18 and continues to February 28. In the background Miss Lois Young, San Bernardino sub-deb, is throwing oranges to the visitors to the exposition. The feature exhibit of the Mutual Orange Distributors is shown. The Eleventh National Orange Show is larger in every department than its predecessors. It is expected that 200,000 people will attend during the ten days.
None will tire of inspecting the magnificent displays and of the entertainment programs.

E. O. Kiefer and Charles Shattuck who had a preliminary hearing in City Recorder F. H. Lowe's court yesterday afternoon, was held to the ing an automobile owned by Ernest was also held pending the hearing, was released by Judge Lowe.

Expenses Gain, Says Lunacy Commission

SACRAMENTO—State hospital expenses took a decided jump upward in 1920, according to the twelfth biennial report of the state commission on lunacy, which has been filed with Governor Stephens.

As shown by the report, the per capita cost in 1919 was $1,655.47, compared with the 1920 per capita expense of $1,832.20, an increase of $176.73. The items listed, all of which, save one, show an increase,
are: Support and subsistence, care and welfare, maintenance of buildings and grounds, farming and general.

The two items of support and subsistence and care and welfare show the largest increases. In 1919, according to the report, support and subsistence of patients alone cost the state $758.32, while the same item in 1920 amounted to $820.37. Similarly, while the cost of care and welfare was $441.31 two years ago, the cost of this work increased to $516.50 in 1920.

The expense item listed as "general" is the only one that shows a decrease.

The actual population of the several hospitals at the end of the last biennium, it is shown by the report, was 10,355. This is an increase of only fifty-nine over the figures quoted for 1918.

Overcrowding is one of the most serious problems discussed in the report. In some of the institutions, patients, the commission points out,
are required to sleep on the floor,

Southern California

Plan Light System

Hollywood will vote April 5 on a proposed $1,500,000 bond issue to install a post lighting system in the business district of that section of Los Angeles.

Charter Is Beaten

Santa Ana yesterday voted to retain its present form of city government. A board of freeholders had prepared a charter and the issue was backed by the city's newspaper, all of its civic organizations and ministers, but the tax rate was to be raised 35 cents and the people voted the city manager proposition down.

Lemon Men Losing

With lemons selling in Glendale as low as 10 cents a dozen, it is not strange to learn that the growers are losing $1 a box on all shipments east.

Postoffice Closes

Rural route and city carriers in the mail service at Los Angeles and branch postoffices are enjoying a vacation today. Special dispatches of mail were received here only, the regular clerks enjoying the holiday.

Iowa Folk Gather

Scores of Iowa people residing in Glendale motored to Lincoln Park, Los Angeles, today, to participate in their state picnic and reunion, at which Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, is the principal speaker. There were numerous other picnics planned also.

Van Nuys' Birthday

Van Nuys, San Fernando valley's newest town, is celebrating its tenth birthday today. A barbecue at 5 o'clock this afternoon will no doubt attract many Glendale people who have interests there. A band concert and dance will follow.

Income Tax Officer Disappoints Number

Scores of Glendale income taxpayers were disappointed this morning when the deputy from Internal Revenue Collector Carter's office failed to make his appearance. He was scheduled to be in Glendale February 22 to 26 inclusive, with offices in the council chamber of the city hall.

It is presumed that today being a holiday and all federal offices closed, that it was taken for granted that Glendale's city hall would be closed.
That was not the case, however, as practically all departments were busy.

The government's service in sending a man here to advise local income taxpayers regarding their rights is of extreme value, as well as the service of experts who charge for their services.

One of the latter in Glendale, it is stated, saved a man who is in business in Los Angeles the neat sum of $8200 by explaining the regulations bearing on partnerships.

ASSISTANT PASTOR

REV. LOUIS TINNING PREACHES
SERMON SUNDAY MORNING IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Sunday morning's sermon at the Presbyterian church was by the assistant pastor, Rev. Louis Tinning, who took as his text a passage from the very first history of the church:
"And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." Or, as more exactly translated, "Such as were being saved," Acts 2:47. The following is a resume:

"Within a few weeks many of the churches of the land will be engaged in the annual every-member canvass for the funds which shall carry on the work for the coming year. The plans are thorough and far-reaching.
Why not institute a similar method for reaching the unsaved? The methods and success of the financial canvass suggest a spiritual every-member canvass.

"A pastor felt impelled to speak a special word to a fine young specimen of manhood, who responded, 'I have heard you preach every Sunday for seven years, but I am not a Christian yet.' But five minutes of heart to heart talk did the work. When we read in the Book of the Acts that 'The Lord added to the church daily' we are certain that there was the power which makes for real evangelism. With all the advancement of this day, the immeasurably greatest need still is exactly the same gospel that was preached then. Today there is needed an increasing emphasis on soul winning as the chief business of the church. No cheap imitation of evangelism will do; it must be the real thing. We can best learn this from the book of the Acts. It will be profitable for us to study a little about some of the distinguishing marks of the spiritual every-member canvass in the early church.

Recognize All-Sufficiency

"1. It must recognize all the sufficiency of the Lord Jesus Christ. The New Testament record does not say that Peter had so many hundred or thousand converts. It does say, 'the Lord added.' Never since that time have Christians had a more vivid sense of the presence with them of their living God. We are certain to make the mistake of magnifying human agencies unless we preserve a close fellowship with our Lord. When one has a vision of God, it is the end of self-sufficiency. Here is the first secret of the power of one who would win souls for Christ: 'I can do all things in Him that strengtheneth me.'

"2. It must be an effort that is reinforced by righteous living. 'The greatest argument for Christianity is a Christian.' Infidelity may construct telling objections, but infidelity stands dumb in the presence of Christianity-embodied. If we are to be truly evangelistic we must be saintly. No truth needs more heed these days than just this: the necessity for irreproachable Christian living. How much we need to pray,
'Search me, oh God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts.'

Never Find Better Way

"3. It must be an effort that exalts the Cross of Calvary. All the way back, and down to now, men have sought some other way, but never have found it. The heart of this world never can find what it needs save in the blood of Christ.
There never will be anything else.
The tendency today is too much to crowd back Calvary and press forward methods and things.

"In this spiritual every-member canvass everyone must have some part, old, middle-aged and young. It fits to every age and every circumstance of life. The one leading to Christ must have the experience; men are mightily moved by that. If the gospel is to be faithfully preached and lived you and I must not hesitate to tread the path that leads to Calvary.

"Dr. Jowett said to a missionary,
'Why are you so anxious to return to your work?' 'Oh, I just can't sleep for thinking of those lost ones.' We have the privilege of preparing a souls' way by prayer. We have had days of wonderful privileges heretofore, but we hope for yet more hereafter. Souls may be born anew, 'Such as are being saved.'

ARGENTINA STAGES RACE

An annual race for automobiles, promoted by the Auto Club of Argentina, was recently held with an entry of thirty-nine cars, the largest bile event ever held in South America. Of the cars entered thirty-two were American-made.

For the second time in the month of February the banks and many of the business houses of Glendale are closed today in commemoration of the birthday of a President of the United States. Today is the 189th anniversary of the birth of George Washington, to whom Daniel Webster paid this tribute:

"Born upon our soil—of parents also born upon it—never for a moment having had a sight of the old world—instructed according to the modes of his time, only in the spare, plain but wholesome elementary knowledge which our institutions provide for the children of the people—growing up beneath and penetrated by the genuine influences of American society—living from infancy to manhood and age amidst our expanding, but not luxurious civilization—partaking in our great destiny of labor, our long contest with unreclaimed nature and uncivilized man—our agony of glory, the War of Independence—our great victory of peace, the formation of the Union, and the establishment of the Constitution,—he is all—all our own! Washington is ours!"

In the many accounts of Washington's life, as in the lives of others of our famous leaders, there is a wealth of anecdote and personal recollection.
Much of it is, doubtless, hearsay; the famous cherry tree story can never be definitely labeled truth or fiction, for there are those who incline to both views. But all biographers unite in praise of the sagacity, humanity and keen understanding of men and affairs which were his and agree that he led his country through the perilous times of its beginning in a way that shall ever command the devout thanks of its citizens.

Among the many qualities and virtues which commend him to his countrymen today is that one of frugality. Of his counsels to the people of his own time this may well be recalled to us now.

"Economy makes happy homes and sound nations. Instill it deep."

By many, Washington's farewell address is considered to give as true and complete an indication of his devotion to his country and thought for its future as any record he has left. The following excerpt will always be pertinent:

"As a very important source of strength and security, cherish public credit. One method of preserving it is to use it as sparingly as possible; avoiding occasions of expense by cultivating peace, but remembering also that timely disbursements to prepare for danger frequently prevent much greater disbursements to repel it; avoiding likewise the accumulation of debt, not only by shunning occasions of expense, but by vigorous exertions in time of peace to discharge the debts, which unavoidable wars may have occasioned, not ungenerously throwing upon posterity the burden which we ourselves ought to bear. The execution of these maxims belongs to your representatives, but it is necessary that public opinion should cooperate. To facilitate to them the performance of their duty it is essential that you should practically bear in mind, that towards the payment of debts there must be revenue; that to have revenue there must be taxes; that no taxes can be devised which are not more or less inconvenient and unpleasant; that the intrinsic embarrassment, inseparable from the selection of the proper objects (which is always a choice of difficulties), ought to be a decisive motive for a candid construction of the conduct of the government in making it, and for a spirit of acquiescence in the measures for obtaining revenue which the public exigencies may at any time dictate."

"Adams expressed the unique and characteristic sentiment that 'Instead of adoring Washington, mankind should applaud the nation which educated him. . . I glory in the character of a Washington, because I know him to be only an exemplification of the American character. I know that the general character of the nations of the United States is the same with his,
and that the prevalence of such sentiments and principles produced his character and preserved it, and I know there are thousands of others who have in them all the essential qualities, moral and intellectual, which compose it."

Gland Subject Of 19 Has Mind Of One Year

CHICAGO — Nineteen-year-old Mary Zundak, whose broken mentality was mended by the transplanting of a monkey's gland in her neck, was marooned in a hospital here recently while physicians waited for philanthropists to come to her aid.

Mary's brain snapped when stricken with infantile paralysis when she was six months old and for eighteen years she lived in a basement of her parents' home at Joliet, where she was discovered by health officers.
The girl could neither talk, read or walk. The parents, foreigners, kept her secluded because they thought that the best way to protect her.

Dr. Max Thorak, surgeon and chief of the medical staff of the American hospital here, volunteered to attempt the restoration of the girl's normal faculties. He performed the operation of transplanting the monkey's gland. A monkey was chosen because it is the nearest to the human species and it was thought that one of its glands would be able to furnish the spark which would fire the brain, suppressed for eighteen years.

Since the operation, two months ago, the girl has shown improvement in mind and body and hospital authorities are now faced with the problem of educating her. She is still unable to speak clearly, Thorak said, but he believes that if she can be given the care, she will develop both speech and learn to talk and think.

"Someone has got to care for the child," Thorak said. "She should be placed in the care of someone who could give her an education. Doctors cannot spare the time. It is a pity, because Mary is unable to think for herself and she cannot walk properly.
She is still in the class of a year old baby."

"The thing to do is to pay some woman to care for the girl. Several people would be willing to raise the girl if they could be given financial assistance."

FIRST METHODIST

YOUNG MAN AND CHURCH IS TOPIC OF SERMON BY
REV. C. M. CRIST

At the First Methodist church Sunday night Dr. C. M. Crist preached to a large audience, on "The Young Man and the Church." The text used was Psalms 92:13, "Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God." Dr. Crist said in part:

"The Christian church is the organized goodness of our day. There is no claim that all good is in the church, nor that the church is all good. The fact is that the church is as yet hardly touching the hem of Christ's garment as to privilege and holy living. Too often we seem to be indifferent to the great problems that are stirring the heart of the world. Because of our failure there has been a tendency to shift the blame from people to preacher and from preacher to people. However this may be, the fact remains that the church is the organized goodness of our day, and should have the support of every good man.

Divinely Organized
"The church is a divinely organized institution, and in this differs from the club, the fraternal organization or the lodge. Recognizing this fact the most thoughtful men approach the church seriously inquiring as to the requirements of membership. This inquiry usually resolves itself into this other question, 'What constitutes a Christian?' In replying it is well to first recognize the great original, Jesus Christ. As we see Him and appreciate His personality and His absolute sinlessness we come to feel that we may properly seek church membership not because we are good, but because we are not, and want to be.

"John Wesley said that any one who had 'a purpose to flee from the wrath to come' should unite with the church. We add this as possibly giving the fuller thought, 'and with a purpose to live the best possible life here.' If a man takes Christ as his Savior from sin, his teacher and his inspiration to goodness, he should assume the obligations of church membership, not because he has arrived at perfection but because he has not, and needs the church to help him.

"There is," continued Dr. Crist, "the greatest obligation resting upon every man to support the organized goodness of his day by giving himself and of his means for its perpetuation."

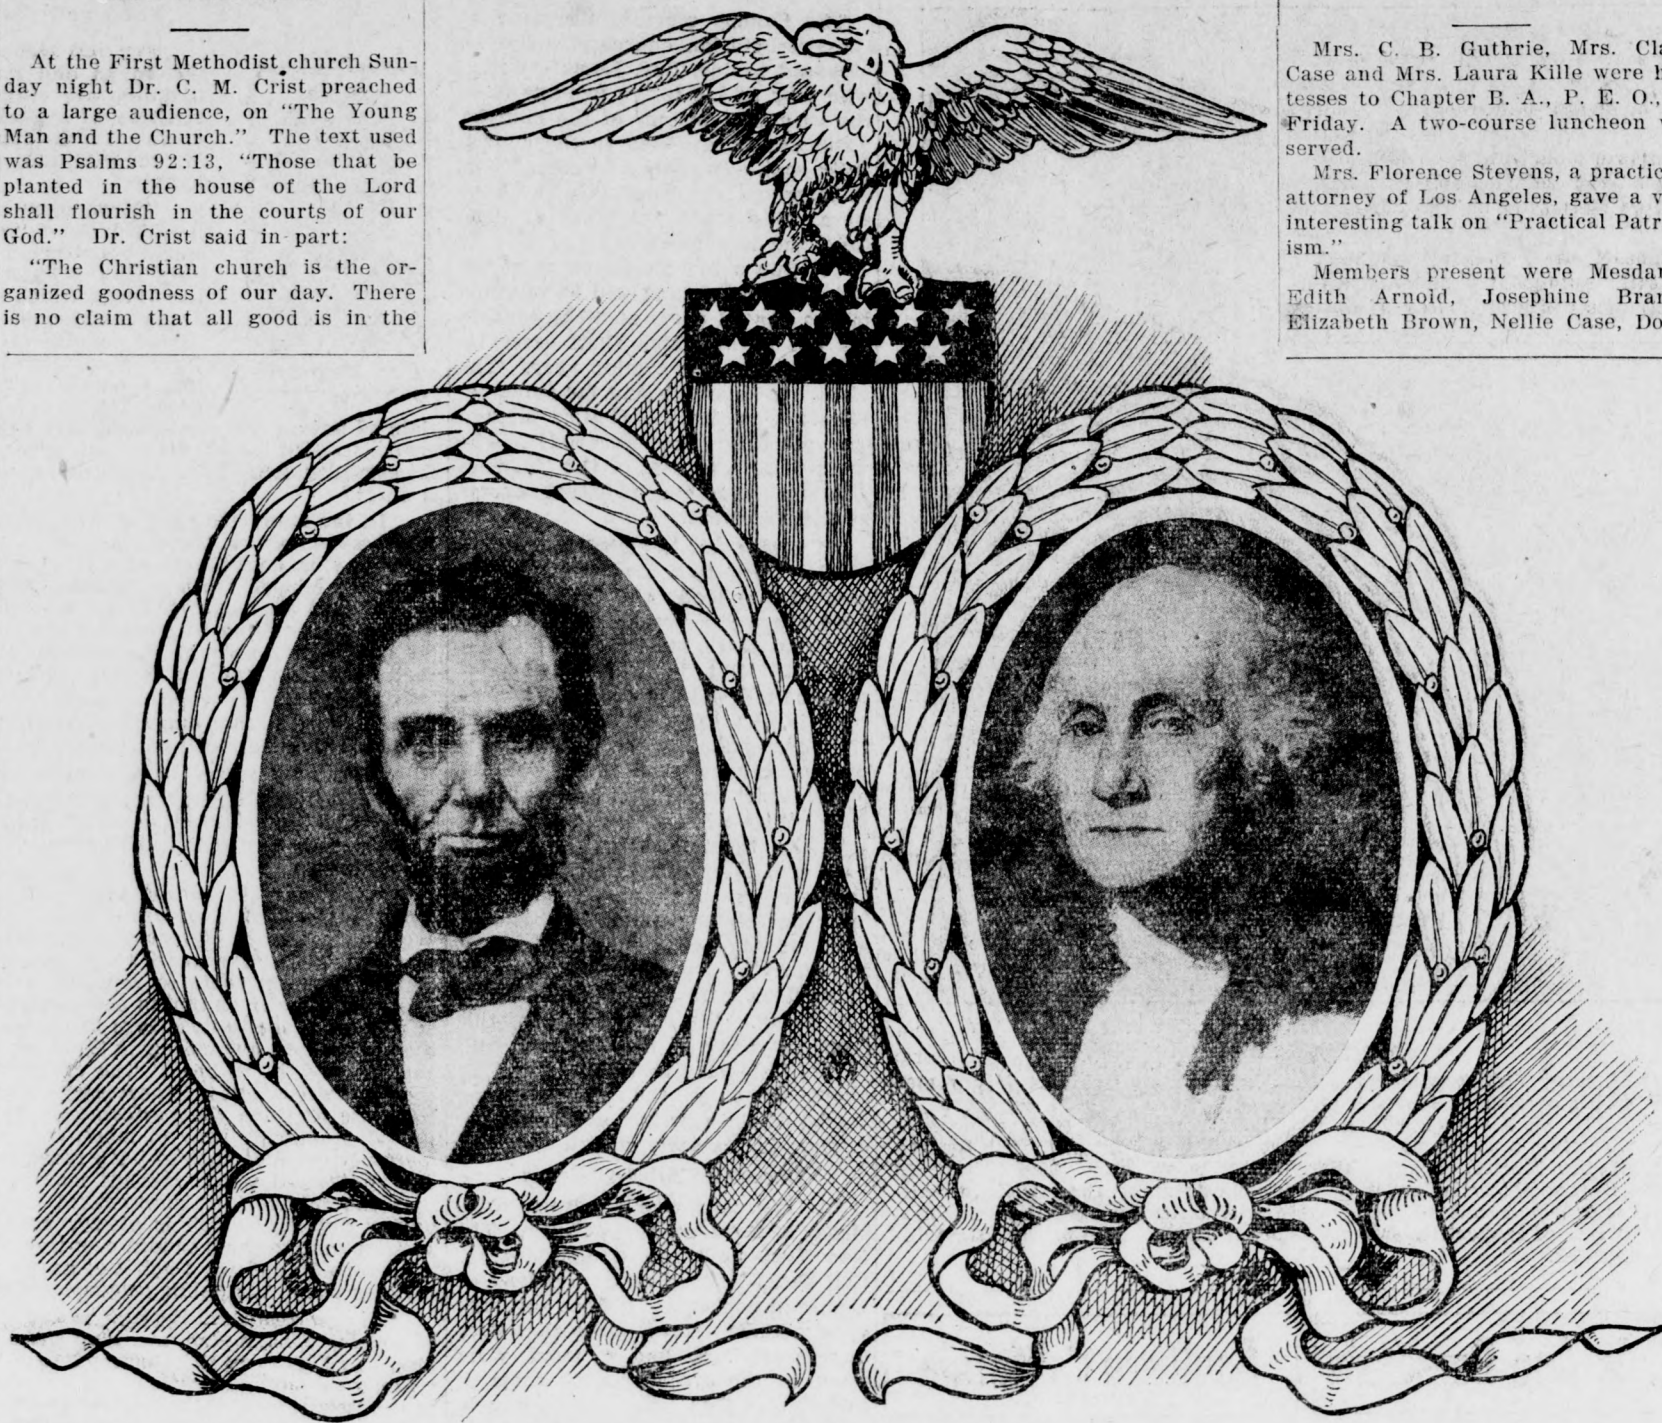

Answers Objections
It was at this juncture that Rev. Crist answered the objections often made by men for not uniting with the church. He dealt with those who claimed to be "more liberal" in their views than is the so-called orthodox Christian; with those who declare that "It is not necessary to join the church to live the Christian life;" and with those who are "putting off" the matter until a more convenient season.

Dr. Crist closed, saying, "How much below the dignity of our manhood is it to deny to the church that open service which it so much deserves! The honor of Jesus Christ is bound up in the church and His challenge today is to every good man to publicly enlist in this great army that is fighting for righteousness."

Palace Grand Has
Arbuckle As Feature

Millions have read the novel, "Brewster's Millions," by George Barr McCutcheon. Thousands have seen the play and millions more will now have an opportunity to see the photoplay, founded on the novel and the play, with Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, the noted comedian, in the title role. It is shown at the Palace Grand theatre today and tomorrow.

The story concerns a young man whose two wealthy grandfathers have contrary views concerning his rearing, and their disputes result in the gift by one of a million dollars to the young man, and the immediate offer, by the other, that if the hero will spend the other grandfather's million in one year, he will give him five millions and a partnership. Brewster succeeds in spending the million, but he loses the big proposition when he breaks the rules by marrying the girl. But the girl has wisely invested enough of the original million to save the day, and all ends happily. Betty Ross Clark is the girl.

This feature for the holiday holds over tomorrow and is shown in conjunction with "Edgar's Best Bet," a Booth Tarkington comedy, and the usual news reels.

Four Years In War,
Boy Back In School

NEW YORK—John Wisniewski, thirteen years old, is back in school after four years of truancy. In spite of the fact that he has to go back into the second grade, from which he ran away at the age of nine, the four years have been busy ones. He is bringing back the gold-starred medal of bravery conferred upon him by the Polish government and three wound scars won in the two wars he has fought since he left—the world war and the Polish-Bolshevist campaigns.

John ran away and shipped to France in 1917 on a transport taking the Polish-American troops across. Two companions were with him. They were eight and eleven years old. John is the only one of them to come through alive. The soldiers made them mascots at first, but when they got to France they became real fighters.

The only thing that worried John when he got back was what they are going to do to him for having played hooky for so long.

THERE'S SOME DIFFERENCE
Webster—take notice! There's a difference between the words "transport" and "transportation." As defined by the federal bureau of education, "transport" refers to carrying merchandise by motor vehicles, while "transportation" refers to carrying it by railroad.

"The fact is that we have too many backsliders still connected with the churches. Too many people who think that religion is a cloak that may be taken off any time they have a desire to attend some doubtful place of amusement; too many persons who have the form of godliness, but lack the essential life-giving principle."

"Time fails me to tell of the backsliding heifers in the church of God who occasionally render some service, but of whom it must be said that it requires a tremendous amount of effort on the part of the pastor and others to get the work accomplished; it would be much easier to do the work yourself."

"Keep to the Furrough"

"The man who is willing to put on the yoke and keep to the furrough, the straight path in which God would have him go, is exceedingly rare; he jerks and twists and darts hither and thither, shunning nothing so much as the straight and narrow way. God help us to stick closer to the furrough; and if there is a backslider here let him hear the word of the Lord: 'Return unto the Lord thy God.' Again, 'I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely.' Once more, 'Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out.'"

ON BACKSLIDING

REV. H. C. FUNK IS SPEAKER AT FIRST LUTHERAN; TEXT FROM HOSEA, 4-16

Taking as his subject, "Backsliding Heifers," Rev. H. C. Funk, pastor of the First Lutheran church, spoke Sunday, in part:

"The prophet Hosea, in the fourth chapter and sixteenth verse, uses these words: 'Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer.' Some time ago I learned of a minister who had recently been installed as pastor of a church. He started out well. He was sound in theology and a good pastor. But one of his members who had Unitarian views soon declared that he would withdraw his support if that preacher didn't let up preaching on the doctrine of the Atonement. Another member of the church owned an interest in a Sunday resort; a place of questionable amusement, but which paid a big profit, and he made it known that he would quit the church if the pastor continued to harp on 'remembering the Sabbath day to keep it holy.' Now we confess that any minister would have an awful time trying to break ground to sow the Gospel seed with a pair of backsliding heifers like that."

Too Many Backsliders

"The fact is that we have too many backsliders still connected with the churches. Too many people who think that religion is a cloak that may be taken off any time they have a desire to attend some doubtful place of amusement; too many persons who have the form of godliness, but lack the essential life-giving principle."

"Time fails me to tell of the backsliding heifers in the church of God who occasionally render some service, but of whom it must be said that it requires a tremendous amount of effort on the part of the pastor and others to get the work accomplished; it would be much easier to do the work yourself."

"Keep to the Furrough"

"The man who is willing to put on the yoke and keep to the furrough, the straight path in which God would have him go, is exceedingly rare; he jerks and twists and darts hither and thither, shunning nothing so much as the straight and narrow way. God help us to stick closer to the furrough; and if there is a backslider here let him hear the word of the Lord: 'Return unto the Lord thy God.' Again, 'I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely.' Once more, 'Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out.'"

NEW JAMAICA STAMPS

"Jamaica, in issuing a new pictorial series, has adopted the peculiar idea of calling it a set commemorative of the island's exhibition held thirty-five years ago," says Kent B. Stiles, the stamp expert. "The inscription includes 'Jamaica Exhibition 1891' and the designs on the various denominations consist of the buildings of that period. Values range from a half-penny to 5 shillings. Why should Jamaica wish to commemorate in this way the thirtieth anniversary of an exhibition? The situation smacks of a desire to obtain pennies from collectors in order that Jamaica may help finance her postal administration!"

the following proposition to be voted on, to-wit:

"Shall that certain proposed Municipal Improvement District known as Municipal Improvement District No. 3 of the City of Glendale, incur a bonded debt of $50,000.00 for the purpose of acquiring and constructing works for the collection and disposal of sewage from said district including the acquisition of lands, easements and rights of way, and the construction of pipe lines, manholes, flush-tanks, septic tanks, cesspools and other works and appurtenances necessary for such purposes?"

That opposite the above proposition to be voted on, and to the right thereof, the words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed on separate lines with voting squares thereafter.

SECTION 6. For the purpose of holding and conducting said special election, said district as above described shall constitute one election precinct designated as Special Election Precinct No. 1 and the following polling place in said precinct is hereby designated and the following named election officers therefor are hereby designated, to-wit:

Special Election Precinct No. 1: All of said Municipal Improvement District No. 3.

Polling Place: Real estate office situated on Bonita Drive between Camulos Avenue and Opechee Way.

Inspector: C. L. Chandler.

Judge: H. B. Crocker.

Clerk: Mrs. Grace M. Cleveland.

SECTION 7. That in all particulars not recited in this resolution, such election shall be held and conducted as provided by law for holding general municipal elections in said City of Glendale.

SECTION 8. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this resolution by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale and cause the same to be published five times in the "Glendale Evening News," a daily newspaper printed, published and circulated in the City of Glendale.

DWIGHT W. STEPHENSON, President of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale.

Attest: J. C. SHERER, City Clerk of the City of Glendale.

OUTLINE PROGRAM

CHAUTAUQUA TO BE HELD IN GLENDALÉ MAY 11-17 AND EVENTS ARE VARIED

Advance information on the Ellison-White Chautauqua program for the coming season indicates a week of lectures, entertainment and music that should please "chautauqua fans." The dates for Glendale have been definitely set for May 11 to 17.

Stefansson, the noted Arctic explorer, is one of the headlines on the lecture list. A year ago Stefansson was under contract to appear on the Ellison-White chautauquas in the south and west, but he developed serious throat trouble and his doctors forced him to cancel the long speaking engagement. Unquestionably Stefansson is one of the biggest attractions on the American platform today. He has a remarkable story to tell of his many years in the northland and he tells it in an exceedingly interesting manner.

Other Features on Program

Another national celebrity, who makes his initial appearance on the chautauquas this year is Peter Clark Macfarlane, the well known writer. For many years Macfarlane has been in the limelight as a prominent contributor to all the leading periodicals. He is said to be remarkably gifted as a speaker and his many readers will undoubtedly welcome this opportunity of hearing him.

Two other feature events of this week will be the presentation of Charles Rann Kennedy's great play, "The Servant in the House," and the coming of Liane's Little Symphony, a particularly fine orchestra organized by Thurlow Liane, the noted American composer.

Notice of Public Work

SECTION 1. All that portion of that first alley east of Canada Boulevard, from the northerly line of Hiawatha Drive to the southerly line of Wabasso Way, said alley being one hundred and sixty (160) feet easterly and parallel to the easterly line of Canada Boulevard.

The district to be assessed to pay the damages, costs and expenses for the described improvement, is described in and reference is hereby made to Resolution No. 1158 for further particulars of said work.

HOW TO MEASURE RIVER

The United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, frequently receives letters inquiring for some simple method of determining approximately the flow of creeks or small rivers. The following instructions may be of some value to those who wish to determine roughly the velocity or the volume of a stream.

Choose a place where the channel is straight for 100 to 200 feet and has a nearly constant width and depth; lay off on the bank a line 50 or 100 feet in length, marking each end; then throw small chips into the water and allow them to float downstream, noting the time the chips require to travel the distance laid off on the bank. The surface velocity in feet per second may be found by dividing the distance in feet passed over by the chips by the time in seconds the chips take to travel this distance. The average of several such determinations will give the mean velocity of the surface of the stream.

The surface velocity multiplied by 0.80 gives very nearly the average velocity of the whole stream, from surface to bed.

To determine the area of the cross section of the stream, stretch a tape from shore to shore and take the depth of the stream at intervals of two to five feet. Compute the average of these depths in feet to determine the mean depth of the stream. This average multiplied by the total width in feet will give the area of the cross section of the stream in square feet.

The discharge—that is, the quantity of water flowing in the stream—is found by multiplying the area of the cross section by the average velocity as determined by means of the chips, the result being the discharge in second-feet, or, in other words, the number of cubic feet flowing past the point of measurement every second. A cubic foot contains 7.48 gallons.

BASKETBALL GAME

GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL TEAM DEFEATS SOUTH PASADENA; AWARDS OF 'G' MADE

With the basketball season officially closing for the Glendale union high school last Friday when the local quintet won over South Pasadena there by a score of 36 to 17, the canasta jugglers will be more than interested to know to whom the "G" will be awarded.

According to Coach Normal Hayhurst today, Tom McNary, captain, Victor Colburn, William Goertz, Bernard Dennison, Wilfred Cline, Floyd Herman, William Farmer and possibly one other are those who earned the school's honor.

If Coach Hayhurst can arrange it, he intends to have his team meet the Monrovia five on an inside court, as he contends that there is no better group of "inside" players than those representing Glendale. They lost to Monrovia under the unfavorable circumstance of playing on an outside court, he believes.

Men With United States Fleet At Cuba Enjoy Swimming; So Does Dog, Mascot of Sailors

B-r-r-r! Pretty cold to be about to plunge in for a cooling swim, isn't it? But don't be too sympathetic for these men are with the fleet at Guantanamo, Cuba, where the water is about 75 degrees now. And the dog is usually the first in—he doesn't wait until the bugle finishes its "Commence Firing" notes but on the first blast over he goes and enjoys it just as much as the bluejacket.

CONGREGATIONAL

INTERESTING SERMON GIVEN ON SEEING GOD IN ALL ORDINARY EVENTS

Rev. C. M. Calderwood of the First Congregational church last Sunday took for his text the account of Elijah's discouragement and his request that he might die, and his going to Mt. Horeb in search of his God. But Elijah did not see God in the wind, earthquake or fire. Instead he heard God in the still small voice. "From this," Mr. Calderwood drew the lesson that one should attempt to see God in the ordinary events of life. "People have different ways of seeing God," said Rev. Calderwood. "Some see him as an anthropomorphic being, some see Him only in the past and its great events, some see Him only through feeling and some only through the Bible. It was a sad day for the Christian church when the canon of sacred scripture was closed and thus all future revelation of God was discounted in advance.

"Let us not discount the voice of God because it does not always happen to be two or three thousand years old. God can be found in the extraordinary and wonderful. Many have found God in this way. But this kind of revelation has received its due amount of emphasis. We are apt to emphasize this too much. We need to learn to see God as Elijah did in the common events of life. When people looked for God in only the wonderful and miracle they strove to place as many things as possible under that category so the sphere of divinity might be enlarged.

Science Disclosing God
"They fought every approach of science as limiting God and thus they were alarmed by thinking that science was driving God out of his universe. We are learning that science is not the enemy of religion but rather its buttress. The disclosures of science are showing us God's evolutionary processes, and God does not mean less to us, but more. Now the natural is being found to be supernatural and the supernatural as natural as the natural.

"I am not denying God's appearances in interventions, but I am affirming His existence in other things besides special interventions. The God that is above the world must be in it. The God that is above natural law must be in natural law. The God that is in the occasional must be in the constant. God is not driven out of the heavens because we understand the nature of an eclipse. The stars do not speak to us any the less of God because we can understand them better than the ancients.

"If we find God in the commonplace we find Him every day. Special acts come occasionally, but common acts come regularly and frequently. God is not a mere transcendent being who spent a week making the universe and its machinery and then retired from it to appear only for extraordinary events. God is imminent as well as transcendent.

Looks Out for Wants

"God is no longer simply a first great cause, but He is our Father in heaven looking out for our wants just as truly as ever He did for the children of Israel. God is not a mere spectator of human history, but He is taking His part in human history. A living, speaking God gives us an active witnessing religion. A dead

NEW STRUCTURE

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH WILL PROCEED WITH ITS BUILDING PROGRAM

Sunday was a "red letter" day in the history of the Central Christian church, for at that time it was fully decided that the building committee could proceed with details for the beginning of the construction of the new structure for this growing congregation. Responses were made which brought the initial gifts for the building up to about $20,000.

Large crowds attended both services, the capacity of the house being taxed for the forenoon service when the minister, Rev. Clifford A. Cole, preached on the theme, "Go Forward." After relating the predicament that faced the fleeing Israelites as they escaped from Egypt, attention was focused upon the command of God to have the people "go forward." Among other things the speaker said:

"A man, a community, a church, travels in the direction in which it determinedly sets its face. The direction of a man's face is determined by his desires. If he loves the earthly and temporal supremely his tendencies will be earthward. Before a man can go forward he must look forward. The past must only serve to goad us on. To go forward was and is a divine command. Men ever hear it in their souls. The advance of the age is made because men hearken to the command.

Church Cannot Stop

"Go forward" does not lose its emphasis when we have achieved large things. A church cannot stop when she has come out into great fields and when the necessity of a community demands further enlargement. Forgetting the things which are behind we are to press on to the goal. "Not failure, but low aim, is crime." "Go forward" was enjoined in the face of great difficulties. Mountains of difficulty may loom up before us, the turbulent waters may be just ahead, but these with God's help become the allies of Israel, and may so become with us. "Go forward" follows the vision. Where there is none, the people perish. We have a vision of a United church which this congregation is set to help accomplish. Christendom must be one in order that the world shall be won. We have a vision of the training of young people for work in all lands, of making a more vital impression on this community and in forwarding the cause of God. If we cannot advance we should not live."

Missouri Picnic To Be Held February 24

ELKS' TEAM GOOD

LOCAL BASEBALL SQUAD GETS PLENTY OF PRAISE BEHALF ITS RECENT PLAYING

The baseball team of the Glendale Elks' club is attracting considerable attention for its nifty style of playing, and, under the management of Vincent Salmacia, the members have hopes of making the team a real drawing card. About 300 citizens of Glendale and Palms witnessed the game played at Palms on Sunday. This was one of the fastest and most exciting games of the national pastime of baseball staged by the Glendale Elks.

Will Bolin, the star twirler for the local antlered herd fanned fourteen of the hard hitting Palms. He fully demonstrated what antics the little pill will do when you know just how to put the right stuff on the ball.

Leaps Six-Foot Fence

One of the remarkable features of the game was the jumping of a six-foot fence by Thedaker of Burbank in center field in pursuit of the ball knocked there with hopes of a home run, and by a perfect peg to "Never Miss" Doll on third caught the Palm tree from planting himself on third. The Glendale Elks are fortunate in having a player like "Doc" McGillis on short, nicknamed "Doc" because whenever the ball is knocked to him he kills any hopes of the man reaching first.

Baked Beans, Brown Bread, Meeting Topic

All about baked beans and brown bread will be heard at the Massachusetts meeting Thursday night, February 24, in Bartel hall, Bartel Apartments, 934 West Sixth street, Los Angeles. Plans will be made for the supper next month when the Bay State dishes will be the features of the table.

ONLY HIS STAR LEFT

CHICAGO—Policeman Fred Schoel has his star left, but that's all. Schoel was seated in his automobile at Clarendon and Buena avenues waiting for his wife to leave a nearby apartment where she was visiting friends. Along came two bandits and asked him to stick them 'way up. Schoel thought they were detectives having a lark and was a little slow. They hammered him over the head and drove him to Paulina street and Diversey Parkway, where they took his watch, gun and $4.50. When they saw his star they nearly killed him.

110-POUND MELONS IN EGYPT

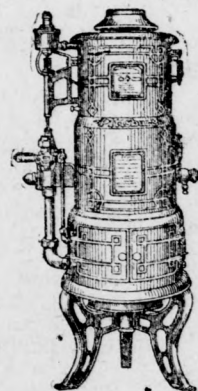

WASHINGTON—One hundred and ten-pound-watermelons; they're got 'em in Egypt, consular reports say so and consuls never err. But they keep 'em all at home. There is no export business.

The consul at Alexandria noted the melons in the market there, "all weighing from ten to 110 pounds and varying in price from 30 cents to $1.50." He also noted that they had been given funny names such as "Battelkh" and "Nims" and "Yaf-fawl," and that only two melons grow to the plant.
